CWSA MISSION STATEMENT

To assist and support South Australian Writers specialising in the crime genre, whether this is crime fiction or true crime, novels or short stories.

CWSA AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

CWSA is a non-profit organisation aimed at supporting writers specialising in the crime genre, whether this is fiction or true crime and whether the author is writing full length novels or short stories.

Support is provided through on-line emails and regular meetings held on 1st Sunday of every month @ 10.30am in the South Australian Writer's Centre.

At these meetings, information is exchanged, advice on writing and getting work published is provided and further knowledge is gained through a variety of guest speakers including editors; publishers; published authors; police and legal professionals. Note. Bullying and/or bad behaviour will not be tolerated and will result in that member being dismissed from the group.

Membership is $25.00 per annum payable in March of each year.
